This quaint log cabin is in the woods but is also close to all the action of Pigeon Forge, Dollywood, and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. It is also far enough out to avoid the traffic of our area which can be busy during the heaviest tourist season. The owner has been renting through Airbnb and is ready to retire. True hardwood flooring throughout the main floor. Step outside for a soak in the hot tub on the screened back porch which offers a private view of the woods.
